

Come to our Annual Apple Festival

When: Sunday, October 12th

Where: Tree-Licious Orchards, Port Murray, NJ, 908-689-2906

Time: Noon to 5pm; Rain or Shine

Activities: An afternoon of family fun outdoors!
Pick Your Own Apples
Listen to wonderful music
Activities for children
Enjoy an afternoon picnic in a beautiful orchard

Admission: $5 per person – age 5 and older

Food: Hamburgers & Hotdogs
Apple Crisp

Benefit For: This event will sponsor The Jeffrey Dworkin Early Intervention Program at the Children's Center at Montclair State University and their activities to support childhood development.

Directions From Montclair Area Via Route 80:

- Route 80 W to Exit 19 “Hackettstown”
- At end of ramp, turn left onto Route 517 S. towards Hackettstown.
- At major traffic light, turn right and immediately turn left onto Grand Ave. The Hackettstown P.O. will be on your right after turn.
- Follow Grand Ave. for approx. 7 miles to stop sign and “Y” intersection. At “Y”, turn right onto Route 628. (A white ranch house on right marks the turn)
- Continue on Route 628 W less than a mile to orchard on right.

Directions From Princeton Area:

- Route 31 North; through Flemington, Clinton and Washington, NJ
- Go through light in Washington, NJ past Dunkin Doughnuts. At next major light, turn right onto Jackson Valley Road towards Karrville/Port Murray
- Follow to right turn onto Karrville Road (historic school house on left)
- Proceed 1 mile to orchard on left. You will see the sign for Tree-Licious Orchards

Enjoy your drive – See you there!